Job offer: Student or Research Assistant for a Kenyan-German project (20 hours / month)

For our Research Project “Strengthening Urban REsilience in FOOD and nutrition security in Kenya (SURE-FOOD)”, funded by the Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF), we are looking for a Student or Research Assistant, starting by agreement on 01.03.2022 or 01.04.2022.

Your profile & tasks

- Native level command of Kiswahili is a must
- Student status at a University in Baden-Württemberg (preferred University of Hohenheim, but students of University of Stuttgart and University of Tübingen are also welcome to apply)
- Willingness to travel in Nairobi to support field work (data collection, translation, analysis) (travel funds will be provided)
- Interest in socio-economic research.

We offer

- Opportunity to work in an international research project (partner in Kenya: University of Nairobi, Egerton University, African Technology Policy Studies Network/ATPS)
- Flexible time schedule in coordination with the team, a pleasant working atmosphere
- Remuneration according to the guidelines of the University of Hohenheim (depending on the degree)

Contact

- We look forward to receiving your application with a motivation letter and your CV to sure-food@uni-hohenheim.de until Monday, 31 January 2022.
